

BBC Sports

Updated: 3-12
Update this newspaper

Football

Storrie quits role at Portsmouth

Peter Storrie steps down from his role as chief executive at Portsmouth.

Ancelotti 'sure' of Joe Cole deal

Chelsea manager Carlo Ancelotti says he is 100% certain that midfielder Joe Cole will be at the club next season.

Brown sorry for Hull duo's fracas

Hull manager Phil Brown apologises to the Women's Institute who saw a row between players Nicky Barmby and Jimmy Bullard.

Chelsea hit by keeper injury blow

Chelsea's third-choice keeper Ross Turnbull will start in goal for Saturday's Premier League match against West Ham because of injuries to Petr Cech and Hilario.

Football League appoints new boss

The Football League appoints Greg Clarke to replace Lord Mawhinney as its new chairman.

Hargreaves set for delayed return

Injury-plagued midfielder Owen Hargreaves is set to play for Manchester United's reserves next Thursday, according to boss Sir Alex Ferguson.

McCoist unsure of Rangers future

Rangers assistant manager Ally McCoist is still very much in the dark regarding his future at the club.

Donovan could have loan extended

The threatened Major League Soccer players' strike could enable Landon Donovan to extend his spell at Everton.

McLeish admits Europa ambitions

Birmingham manager Alex McLeish finally admits he has his sights set on qualifying for the Europa League.

Man City sign Â£1bn regeneration deal

Manchester City Football Club is at the centre of Â£1bn plans to redevelop a 200-acre site around its Eastlands home.

Injury curtails Woodgate's season

Tottenham confirm that defender Jonathan Woodgate will miss the rest of the season following an operation on his longstanding groin injury.

Benitez predicts Anfield comeback

Liverpool manager Rafael Benitez backs his players to advance in the Europa League despite a first-leg defeat against Lille.

We can still beat Juve - Hodgson

Fulham boss Roy Hodgson believes his side can still make the Europa League quarter-finals despite the 3-1 last-16 first leg loss to Juventus on Thursday.

Drogba scoops top African award

Ivory Coast and Chelsea striker Didier Drogba is named African Footballer of the Year.

Gill defends Glazers

Manchester United signs a five-year sponsorship deal with communications group Telekom Malaysia.

Cricket

Pietersen aided by Dravid advice

Kevin Pietersen pays tribute to India batsman Rahul Dravid after returning to form with a knock of 99 on day one of England's first Test versus Bangladesh.

Watch - Indian Premier League cricket (external website)

Watch live coverage and video highlights of the Indian Premier League from YouTube.

West Indies v Zimbabwe live score

West Indies take on Zimbabwe in the fourth one-day international at St Vincent.

Cook and Pietersen dominate Test

Alastair Cook hits 158 not out and Kevin Pietersen 99 as England close day one of the first Test against Bangladesh on 374-3.

Pakistan name squad for World T20

Pakistan, riven by internal divisions, announce a 15-strong squad for next month's World Twenty20 tournament.

Lancashire earn planning approval

Lancashire are handed permission to redevelop their Old Trafford ground.

Northants snap up batsman Sehwan

Northants sign Indian batsman Virender Sehwan for this summer's Twenty20 campaign.

IPL under way amid security fears

The third season of the Indian Premier League cricket tournament is under way amid heavy security in Mumbai.

Aussies clinch NZ series victory

Australia beat New Zealand by six wickets in Auckland to take a winning 3-1 lead in their one-day series.

Onions out of Bangladesh series

England bowler Graham Onions is ruled out of the two-Test series against Bangladesh with a back injury.

Smith backs Durham squad strength

Durham captain Will Smith says the club can cope without the county's England players as they chase another title.

Scots cricket posts record stats

Cricket Scotland reports its best-ever financial results, with a pre-tax surplus of Â£135,000 in 2009.

Pakistan to ban Yousuf & Younus

Pakistan cricketers Mohammad Yousuf and Younus Khan are banned indefinitely from representing their country.

Sussex bring in Dilshan for T20

Sussex confirm Sri Lanka international batsman Tillakaratne Dilshan will play Twenty20 cricket for the county this season.

Ruthless Windies thrash Zimbabwe

West Indies move 2-1 ahead in the one-day international series with Zimbabwe after a 141-run victory in St Vincent.

Rugby Union

Johnson not contemplating defeat

England coach Martin Johnson is refusing to contemplate defeat ahead of Saturday's RBS Six Nations Calcutta Cup match against Scotland at Murrayfield.

Scots can beat England - Robinson

Scotland head coach Andy Robinson believes an aggressive display will see off England in Saturday's Calcutta Cup clash at Murrayfield.

Centurion O'Driscoll hails Jones

Ireland captain Brian O'Driscoll tells the BBC's Sport Wales show that Stephen Jones is the best Welsh player he has ever faced.

Dallaglio completes Sport Relief Cycle Slam

Castrogiovanni fit to face France

Italy prop Martin Castrogiovanni is fit to play in Sunday's Six Nations match against Grand Slam-chasers France after a muscle problem.

Care confident of England ability

Scrum-half Danny Care believes England can produce "something really special" in Saturday's Calcutta Cup match against Scotland.

Cardiff Blues v Gloucester (Sun)

Cardiff Blues host Gloucester in Sunday's LV= Cup semi-final.

Northampton v Saracens (Sun)

Northampton host Saracens in Sunday's LV= Cup semi-final.

Ospreys-Ulster fixture postponed

Next week's Magners League match against Ulster in Ravenhill is postponed as the region cites front-row problems.

Paterson pays tribute to McLaren

Scotland's record points-scorer Chris Paterson pays tribute to the late broadcaster Bill McLaren.

O'Driscoll plays down 100 'hype'

Brian O'Driscoll plays down the significance of him winning his 100th Ireland cap in Saturday's Six Nations clash against Wales.

Ireland v Wales

Preview of Saturday's Six Nations match between Ireland and Wales

Scotland v England

Preview of Saturday's Six Nations match between Scotland and England

France v Italy

Preview of Sunday's Six Nations match between France and Italy.

Rees eager to repay Wales faith

Richie Rees says it is a "big pat on the back" to have kept the Wales nine shirt to face Ireland at Croke Park on Saturday.

Rugby League

Live Super League scores

Hull KR take on Wakefield, St Helens host Crusaders and Wigan meet Hull in Friday night's three games.

Wigan v Hull

Team news for Friday's Super League game between Wigan and Hull at the DW Stadium (2000 GMT).

Hull KR v Wakefield

Team news for Friday's Super League game between Hull KR and Wakefield (2000 GMT).

St Helens v Crusaders

Team news for Friday's Super League game between St Helens and Crusaders (2000 GMT).

Rhinos' Eastwood out for 10 weeks

Leeds Rhinos forward Greg Eastwood is ruled out for at least 10 weeks with a fractured wrist.

Leigh hosts England international

Leigh Sports Village is to host its first international, a mid-season match between England and France, on 12 June.

Rhinos calm over referee episode

Head coach Brian McClennan says Leeds Rhinos have no problems over Richard Silverwood refereeing Sunday's match at Huddersfield Giants.

Warrington v Bradford (Sat)

Team news for Saturday's Super League game between Warrington and Bradford (1730 GMT).

Catalans v Castleford (Sat)

Team news and live coverage details of Saturday's Super League game at Stade Gilbert Brutus (1730 GMT).

Huddersfield v Leeds (Sun)

Huddersfield host Leeds in Sunday's Super League game at the Galpharm Stadium (1500 GMT).

Harlequins RL v Salford (Sun)

Harlequins host Salford City Reds in Sunday's Super League game at The Stoop (1400 GMT).

New Salford Reds stadium approved

A Â£26m sports complex, which will be home to rugby league club Salford City Reds, is approved by councillors.

Bradford's Menzies may not retire

Bradford Bulls second-row Steve Menzies may delay his plans to retire at the end of the season.

Tigers net Wolves' Cooper on loan

Castleford Tigers sign Warrington Wolves forward Mike Cooper on a one-month loan deal.

Robinson agrees new Giants deal

Huddersfield Giants scrum-half Luke Robinson signs a new two-year deal with the Super League club.

Motorsport

Schumacher keen to 'raise game'

Returning legend Michael Schumacher vows to improve after Mercedes team-mate Nico Rosberg leads Friday practice in Bahrain.

Lorenzo poised to miss final test

Jorge Lorenzo admits he is likely to miss the final MotoGP pre-season test because of his hand injury.

Raikkonen buoyed by rally debut

Former Formula 1 world champion Kimi Raikkonen says he is encouraged by his World Rally Championship debut for Citroen after finishing 30th in Sweden.

Read the latest on the TT

Watch NW200 highlights

FIA

Go Motorsport

Formula 1 standings

Standings

MotoGP standings

Rider, team and manufacturer standings for MotoGP 2009.

MotoGP coverage

BBC Sport has comprehensive coverage of 2010 MotoGP season

World results

Motor racing updates from around the world, including the United States.

UK results

World 'bikes results

The latest bike results from around the world.

UK 'bikes results

British bikes - all the details.

www.feedbooks.com
Food for the mind